

Stud Prefix Rules

I. Any person who is a financial member of an ANCC affiliated club or affiliated State or Territory council in their state or territory of residence, may register and use a stud prefix. An application form, together with the current registration fee must be sent to the ANCC Stud Registrar.

I (a). The prefix will remain registered while the person's membership remains current with a club affiliated to the ANCC in their state or territory of residence.

II. A stud prefix may not be used until notification of its registration is received.

III. Baby cavies carry the prefix of the stud that is the legal owner of the mother of the litter.

IV. Under no circumstances is the name of a cavy to be changed. It must retain its original name given by the breeder, both stud prefix and given name.

V. A stud cavy's FULL NAME must be used when being shown.

VI. A cavy born before the prefix is registered is not entitled to carry that prefix.

VII. Any cavy purchased from a source that does not have a registered prefix must NOT carry a stud prefix.
